

COMMITTEE MEMBER'S CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Although a committee member may be drawn from a specific interest group, Committee members must represent the interests of the entirety of Walton County.
2. Committee Members shall not take any action that would undermine the actions of Walton County Tourism if such action was approved by the Tourist Development Council and Walton County BCC. Regardless of their personal viewpoint, committee members shall not speak against, or in any way undermine Walton County Tourism.
3. Committee members are expected to attend all committee meetings and make every effort to attend the Annual Meeting.
4. Committee members shall avoid, in fact and in perception, conflicts of interest and disclose to the committee staff liaison or the Tourism Director, in a timely manner, any possible conflicts.
5. Committee members' contributions to discussions and decision making shall be positive and constructive.
6. Committee members' interactions in meetings shall be courteous, respectful and free of animosity.
7. Committee members shall be prepared for meetings, having read pre-circulated material in advance of the meeting.
8. Committee members shall not attempt to exercise individual authority or undue influence over other Committee Members or staff.
9. Committee members must notify the executive director or their staff liaison once they have filed their intent to run for any political office.
10. Committee members shall always conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner and shall be governed by Florida's Code of Ethics.

pride • preservation • conservation

Noncompliance with any of the above provisions shall constitute grounds for removal from a committee.
